After the 10/2/2015 publication of the updated National Preparedness Goal

I don't know what's going on with the SNRA, but these are the last versions that I've seen (they're the last versions we sent out to the SNRA Working Group or anyone else). We should have more finality by the time you all are ready to cite or quote something (I'm assuming that will be some months from now).

The dates in the filenames aren't quite correct (our fault – just an oversight), so if you happen to have a version with exactly the same filename it may be an earlier version than these. Actual content dates:

- Working Papers: 22 May
- Technical Appendix: 9 June
 - 2015 content: 29 May
 - 2011 2nd half: 9 June [includes corrigenda sheet from January version that we circulated throughout the project]
- Findings: 9 June

I helped create these ambiguities too.

Please expect the Findings to change.

We have later versions of the Technical Appendix (with different titles to avoid future confusion), but they're still rough pre-first-draft (i.e. not even circulated internally yet) and probably still will be come next spring.

Data is a working spreadsheet, so it includes tabs in addition to the plain data sets in front.
